

October Club Event: Columbus Day Landing Party

By Martina Sestakova

Our Columbus Day Landing Party took place on Saturday, October 8, 2022, and fun was to be had by all! Thank you, Ron Harbin and Joan Brandt, for hosting us at Bowleys Marina in Middle River, MD. The temperature for the day was a little chilly and breeze kept us on our toes but we still had wonderful attendance: Jack Janos, Anne and John Martin, Jenn and Rick Cook, Lynn and Marty Gaynor, Bob Morrow, Martina and Jordan Snyder, Ed Criscuolo, Jonathan Coppersmith, and Laurie McCallum. We enjoyed a variety of appetizers (including cucumbers with hummus and olives, deviled eggs, pasta salad), grilled sausages, sauerkraut, and Jack Janos' famous crab meat stuffed peppers. Desserts followed: Bob's cheesecake, Laurie's chocolate cake, and cookies. Ron and Joan led a fun sailing-related trivia. Three winners took home baggies of sweets! Commodore Jordan Snyder shared updates on our club's upcoming Holiday Party. Rob Harbin talked about his conversation with a hotel in Annapolis and Bob Morrow did extensive research about a party at a Mount Washington restaurant. His knowledge may pay off for our Spring Brunch in 2023 (either March or April). For the Holiday Party, we appreciate Jenn and Rick's kind offer to host it at their home in Catonsville on December 17. Thanks all for joining and see you in December!
