The annual combined Crab feast and Raft Up at Wye Island Park. The Person Sailing Association of the Chesapeake Bay will join us so be ready to come on over to the Eastern Shore and enjoy a traditional Maryland Crab Feast. This is the premier event marking the end of summer activities.

Overnight Cabins: We have reserved the cabins in the park. They have bathrooms, kitchens, and single beds with linen provided. One has air conditioning. Four separate sleeping rooms. The first paid reservations for Friday and Saturday will be honored. Cost is $20 per night/person.

Directions from Bay Bridge (East bound):

Travel 12.5 miles eastbound on Route 50 to right turn onto Carmichael Road. Continue 4.4 miles on Carmichael Road to slight right turn on Wye Island Road. Continue 2.2 Mile on Wye Island Road to DNR Conference Lodge entrance on left.

632 Wye Island Road
Queenstown, MD 21658

By boat: Wye Island is a popular destination for boaters looking for a quiet cove to anchor for the night or weekend. Consult local navigational charts for details to Granary Creek off the Wye East River.

WEEKEND ON THE WYE RIVER

Cruisers: All club boats are welcome to anchor and raft Friday and/or Saturday night in the sheltered cove next to the Wye Island Pavilion. Use the dinghy dock to party ashore, shower, cook, grill, play volleyball, etc. BRING YOUR flashlight and PFD'S IN YOUR DINGHY!

Reservations: Required for the Saturday Crab feast. Please detach the form and indicate your choices. Send your check to RRBC care of: John Littrell, 19209 H Chennault Way, Gaithersburg, MD 20879
